

Speaking Practice | 會話練習

Today's topic: Television

much violence

little violence

few + 可數

- Do you prefer listening to the radio/podcast or watching TV?
I prefer watching TV because I like the combination of images and sounds and that watching TV is more convenient to me.
- What is one of your favorite TV shows?
One of my favourite TV shows is the news because the news contains/delivers multiple and real-time messages.
- Did you watch TV tonight? last night
No, I didn't watch TV last night. I browsed the internet last night. Do you often watch TV? No, I watch TV sometimes.
- Do you think TV is educational?
Yes, I do. I think TV offers a lot of programmes, some of which are educational, and we need to select the educational ones effectively.
- Do you think there is too much violence on TV?
Yes, I think there is too much violence on TV. For example, news, movies, cartoons and TV series contain too much violence.
- What are the advantages and disadvantages of watching TV?
- What do you think of TV shows that are designed to "discover new talent?"

The advantages of watching TV are that we can appreciate (感激 感謝) arts and that we can know what happens across the world in a timely manner.

The disadvantages of watching TV are that it can be very addictive and that it can be harmful to eyes. (appropriate 適當的)

I think those TV shows are not real because we can't know the TV shows whether make a deal in the privacy.

I think those TV shows are not real because we don't know whether the shows make a deal privately with the contestants beforehand.